SOUTH AMERICANS APPEAL FOR GENERAL AMNESTY IN MEXICO

Three Mediators Discuss Mexican Situation in all Phases With President Wilson and Secretary Bryan. Carbajal Will Not Surrender Unconditionally. Guarantees of Life and Property Demanded or New Provisional President Will Resist With Military Forces.

U. S. IS EXPECTED TO OBTAIN TERMS

Representative in Washington Confident American Government will Not Permit Arbitrary Entrance Into Mexico City. No Validation of Acts of Huerta is Asked. Southern Republics Will Refuse to Recognize Constitutionalists Unless Rules of Civilized Nations Are Observed.

Washington, July 22.—Ambassador De Gama of Brazil and Ministers Suarez of Chile and Naon of Argentina, the three mediators in the Mexican affair, appealed to President Wilson today to have the United States use its influence with General Carranza to obtain a general amnesty for those who supported the Huerta government.

It was the first formal call of the three mediators since the conference at Niagara Falls adjourned. They were accompanied by Secretary Bryan and for nearly an hour discussed the Mexican situation in all its phases. They expressed the view that Francisco Carbajal was ready to turn over the government to General Carranza, but wanted guarantees that there would be no wholesale executions, arrests or confiscation of property.

They told President Wilson that Carbajal would not surrender unconditionally and that unless these guarantees were given, would concentrate all the military forces and resist to the utmost any effort to invade Mexico City.

President and Bryan Hear Views.

The president and Mr. Bryan listened attentively to the views of the South American diplomats, especially as they indicated that their governments probably would be unable to recognize any administration in Mexico which refused to give quarter to its enemy or establish itself by peaceful means in accordance with civilized practice among nations.

After their talk with the president, Secretary Bryan and the three diplomats went to the state department for a conference.

That the influence of the United States was being relied on by Provisional President Carbajal to obtain satisfactory terms from the Constitutionalists was explained also by Jose Castellot, personal representative of Carbajal. The mediators conferred not only with Mr. Castellot but also with Emilio Rabasa, head of the delegation which represented Huerta at the Niagara conference.

Guarantees Demanded.

Mr. Castellot was confident that the American government never would permit an arbitrary entry into Mexico City. He said the Carbajal government wanted no share in the future administration, no validation of the acts of Huerta, but simply guarantees for lives and property.

Word that the commission which will represent Carbajal in negotiations with Carranza had left Mexico City came to Castellot today. The commission departed without obtaining credentials, but since Carranza indicated to the American government that he would receive the commissions, full instructions and authorization will be sent them.

General Carranza has suggested that the conferences take place at Saltillo.

POLICE ACCUSED OF BURGLARY

Trunks Filled With Valuable Loot Found in Patrolmen's Chicken Coops.

Rockville Center, N. Y., July 22.—One-half of Rockville Center's police force of six men are accused of burglary by warrants issued here today. Two of the three men—Patrolmen Amos Vertizan and Henry Wickes—were arrested while on post, the third, Rufus Peterson, on his vacation, is believed to be in Holyoke, Mass. The Holyoke police have been requested by wire to apprehend him.

GOLD FROM NOME.

Seattle, Wash., July 22.—Eight hundred thousand dollars in gold bullion, the largest consignment received from the north this year, was brought from Nome, Alaska, by the steamship Victoria, which arrived yesterday. The Victoria also had $75,000 worth of furs.

STRIKERS BATTLE WITH OFFICERS

Police and Cossacks in St. Petersburg in Frequent Conflict With Working Men.

St. Petersburg, July 22.—The strike situation in Russia took on a more serious aspect today when armed conflicts occurred in the streets and resulted in the wounding of many police, Cossacks and strikers.

Just outside the capital, a passenger train on the coast line to Finland was held up by strikers, the engineer was forced to quit the locomotive under threat of being shot and the passengers all driven out of the cars.

The strikers, who numbered 300, then cut down the telegraph poles and raised obstructions on the tracks. A detachment of Cossacks and gendarmes arrived and drove off the strikers. Traffic was then resumed but every train was conveyed by a locomotive with an armed escort.

Everywhere the strike movement was reported to be spreading.

LEGATION OFFICER MUST EXPLAIN ACTS

Washington, July 22.—Explanation of the alleged affront offered by Franklin M. Gunther, secretary of the American legation in Norway, to the harbor master at Christians, probably will be demanded by the state department without awaiting formal word from Norway. That the incident would assume international aspects was doubted. Norway will consider the affair a personal matter, in the opinion of officials here.

HOUSE BUILT BY TEN MEN IN TEN HOURS.

Pocatello, Idaho, July 21.—As a demonstration of their working capacity yesterday ten local carpenters got together and, under the direction of Architect Solie, commencing at 7 o'clock in the morning, started a building for Elmer Peterson on the corner of Benton and Eleventh. The men worked for ten hours, and finished a very substantial four-room dwelling. The family moved into the building this afternoon.

EXCITING SCENES IN PARIS COURT

Politics Predominating Factor in Testimony Given at Madame Caillaux Trial.

GOVERNMENT ANXIOUS

Joseph Caillaux Menaces Figaro Counsel—Storm of Shouts Calls Forth Severe Reprimand.

Paris, July 22.—Politics was the predominating factor today in connection with the trial of Madame Caillaux for the murder of Gaston Calmette, editor of the Figaro.

The French government was understood to be greatly concerned in regard to the diplomatic documents mentioned at yesterday's hearing as having been in the possession of the assassinated editor. These documents, it was stated, were later handed over to President Poincare, who passed them on to the foreign office.

Senator Bienvenu Marin, acting minister of foreign affairs, was up most of the night and an active interchange of telegrams took place between him and Premier Rene Viviani, now in Russia with the president.

Joseph Caillaux, the prisoner's husband, and Ferdinand Labori, her counsel, made a vehement demand that the documents should be produced in court. It is understood that the premier anticipating such a demand, left instructions with his substitute at the foreign office as to what course should be pursued with the papers, which are in the foreign office archives.

Government Denies Having Documents.

The moment after the court had been called to order, the procurator general rose and said:

"I am authorized by the government to declare that the documents referred to in yesterday's testimony are only pretended copies of documents, which do not exist."

Maitre Labori—"We consider the incident closed."

Figaro Counsel Sarcastic.

Charles Chenu, the lawyer representing the interests of the Figaro and those of Calmette's heirs, then said sarcastically:

"I regard the incident as only an enjoyable diversion. It has pleased M. Caillaux to transform a criminal trial into a political one. He intends to go from here with a certificate of loyalty to France. Much good will it do him."

The procurator general exclaimed that the honor and patriotism of M. Caillaux remained unstained.

Maitre Labori objected to the language used by Maitre Chenu.

George Prestat, a brother-in-law of the murdered editor and chairman of the Figaro company, was then called to the stand and emphatically denied that the Figaro had been in the pay of foreign banks. The Germans, he said, he never held the majority of the shares of the Figaro, as had been alleged. He then read lengthy extracts from memoranda.

While Prestat was testifying, Caillaux came from his seat among the witnesses and stood closer to the bar in order to hear better.

Maitre Chenu, commenting on M. Prestat's testimony said:

"I will add that it does not become M. Caillaux to come here and endeavor to soil the grave which his wife made."

Exciting Scenes in Court.

Then followed an exciting scene. Many of those in court rose from their seats and shouted:

"Bravo!" while others hissed and murmured until Judge Louis Albanel was obliged to call the court to order with a severe reprimand.

M. Caillaux, in a state of extreme agitation, exclaimed:

"Since I must take notice of what this lawyer has said, I will ask him if he will take personal responsibility for his words."

Another sensation was caused among the spectators by this exclamation, and loud "Bravos!" for M. Caillaux were heard all over the court. When the noise had subsided, Maitre Chenu replied:

"I take the entire responsibility."

You cannot menace me here. You doubtless do not know the temper of the man whom you address."

The disorder in court was so great that Judge Albanel threatened to clear the chamber if the manifestations were repeated.

When quiet had been restored, Georges Fromentin, a sales clerk in the gun store where Madame Caillaux purchased the weapon with which she killed Calmette, was called.

Clerk Explains Automatic Gun.

He took an automatic pistol from the package in front of the judges and explained its action. Maitre Chenu said:

"Madame Caillaux did not say when she loaded the pistol."

Madame Caillaux—"As soon as I got into the motor car, before I could forget Fromentin's explanations."

Madame Caillaux added:

"I had never fired a pistol but I had hunted with my husband. I bought a gun at the same place."

Another gunsmith's employee said Madame Caillaux had practiced in the range under the store. Three of her six shots struck a target the size of a human figure.

Madame Caillaux—"I tried the pistol solely at the request of the employee. He wanted me to be sure I knew how it worked."

Radical Editor a Witness.

Yves Delbos, editor-in-chief of Le Radical, related that he had met Mme. Caillaux on the day of the shooting. He said:

"She seemed depressed and aged and was like a beast, hunted thing."

Mme. Louise de Mesagne-Estrader, formerly society editor of the Figaro, amid profound silence, testified she had dined in company with Mme. Caillaux about two months before the shooting. She continued:

"Mme. Caillaux said Mme. Gueydan, the former wife of M. Caillaux, was going from one newspaper office to another, hawking letters against her. I tried to reassure her by saying that my information was that Mme. Gueydan had refused to sell the letters to Calmette for $6,000. I know nothing of the 'Thy Joe' letter."

"Will you not give more precise testimony about Mme. Gueydan's letters?" interrupted Mme. Caillaux.

The witness did not reply and a moment later left the stand.

POULSEN AND SMITH ARE SENT TO THE PENITENTIARY

This morning in Judge H. J. Harris' division of the district court, District Attorney John C. Davis was permitted to amend the information against Grover Poulsen and Jack Smith, charged with the theft of $300, to read $157, as that amount had been designated by the defendants.

The defendants were arraigned and pleaded guilty. Waiving all rights as to the time when sentence should be passed, they asked to be sentenced immediately. They were given indeterminate terms in the state penitentiary, but the district attorney suggested that a one-year term be recommended to the state board of pardons by the court.

Mr. Davis stated to the court that he made the suggestion for only a year's incarceration in the state prison because of the youth of the offenders and because it was their first offense. The young men were charged with the theft of $175 from a Chinaman named John Joe, a truckster of Twelfth street, May 23, 1914. The amount was originally alleged to have been $300.

PRINCE WILLIAM WEDS PRINCESS

Father-in-Law of Former King Manuel to Marry Daughter of King.

Munich, Bavaria, July 22.—The betrothal of Prince William of Hohenzollern, father-in-law of former King Manuel of Portugal, to a daughter of the king of Bavaria, is understood to be imminent. The prince arrived at Leutsteden, near Munich today on a visit to the Bavarian royal family, and it is believed the official announcement of the engagement will soon be made.

Prince William, who is fifty years old, is a widower, his first wife having died in 1909.

The prince's future bride is said to be Princess Adelgunde, King Ludwig's eldest daughter, who was born October 17, 1870.

KRAFT JOINS THE NEWARK TEAM

New York, July 22.—Clarence O. Kraft, the baseball player whose release to go to Nashville almost caused a strike of major league ball players, left Newark last night to join the Newark team in Providence and in all probability will be in the game today.

The strike was averted yesterday when Charles H. Ebbets of the Brooklyn club, paid the Nashville club $2,500 for the claim to Kraft.

"I am glad the case has been settled," said Kraft. "and I will try to show the fraternity members that I appreciate what has been done for me and also to Mr. Ebbets for his part in settling the affair."

Kraft has been in Newark for about two months. He was sent over by Charles H. Ebbets to bolster up first base for the Indians. He played the position well and was improving in his work when he was ordered out. In fact, in his last game, which was against Baltimore, he won the contest by a home run with the bases full.

SPECIAL TRAINS ON D. S. L. BRING IN OLD FOLKS

Two Oregon Short Line trains carrying 350 members of the Hyrum stake of the Mormon church arrived in the city at 9:50 and 10:00 a. m. today. The excursionists were transferred to the Bamberger electric line and taken to Lagoon to pass the remainder of the day.

The occasion is the annual Old Folks outing of the Hyrum stake and a large number of the younger people of the community joined in the trip to Lagoon, coming from Wellsville, Hyrum, Millville and Lagoon. The Thatcher Brass band of Lagoon accompanied the visitors and will give concerts during the afternoon at the Davis county resort.

The special Oregon Short Line trains will leave Ogden on the return trip into Cache county, at 7 p. m.

IRISH HOME RULE PRINCIPAL TOPIC

Crisis in British Isles Over Settlement of Ulster Problem Arouses Interest.

CRUX OF SITUATION

Exclusion of Tyrone Expected to Bring on Conflict—King is Sharply Criticized.

London, July 22.—Public interest in the crisis over the Irish home rule question overshadowed everything else in the British Isles today. When the representatives of the Liberals, Conservatives, Irish Nationalists and Ulster Unionists arrived at Buckingham Palace this morning to continue their conference with a view to a pacific settlement of the Ulster problem, they found an enormous crowd assembled in the great open space before the gates of the palace. The various statesmen as they passed in were respectfully greeted by their sympathizers.

Having disposed of the preliminaries of the conference at yesterday's formal meeting, when King George V. presided, the assembled statesmen, the conferees arrived today prepared to tackle the crux of the problem—the area of Ulster to be excluded from the operation of the Irish home rule bill and the means of carrying out this exclusion. Some clearing of the ground had also been effected during informal conferences yesterday afternoon and evening.

Concessions to Be Made.

Openly, of course, the two sides declare that they cannot withdraw from their present positions but it is understood that Premier Asquith is likely to submit to the conference a proposal to allow the Protestant counties of Ulster to vote together on the question of exclusion from the home rule parliament, and that he may also go so far as to change the time limit of six years embodied in the amending bill.

Sir Edward Carson, the Ulster Unionist leader, will make a fight to have the county of Tyrone included in this agreement and this proposition will, it is thought, provoke a conflict which will decide the fate of the conference.

King's Speech Criticized.

The Liberal newspapers in the provinces continue to criticize King George's speech, which most of them will not believe the cabinet was responsible for. They appear to be particularly irritated at the phrase "The cry of civil war is on the lips of the most responsible and sober-minded of my people," which they say might have been taken from the speeches of the Ulster leader. These papers, the Manchester Guardian, a leading Liberal newspaper, the king "thought fit to summon to his presence without a word of rebuke."

The king has been unduly alarmed by the reports of certain of his unofficial counsellors and the impression thus made on his mind may, unless he forth by his official counsellors, have consequences more serious than any that have yet been produced."

The conferees were again in session for an hour and a half today and then adjourned until tomorrow.

Area Claims Presented.

The claims of the two opposing parties, led by John E. Redmond and Sir Edward Carson, on the crucial question of the area to be excluded from the operation of the home rule bill, were presented to the conferees. As neither the Nationalist nor the Ulster Unionist leader possess plenipotentiary powers, however, these claims must be submitted to the consideration of their respective governments at each stage so that the progress of the conference necessarily must be deliberate.

John Redmond and John Dillon, as they left Buckingham Palace and passed along the sidewalk in front of Wellington Barracks, received a great reception from the men of the battalion of Irish guards stationed there. The soldiers crowded to the windows, cheering wildly and waving their caps.

LONDON WOOL.

London, July 22.—The usual end series selection was offered today at the wool sales and sold briskly at full prices. The auctions were concluded firm in tone with prices showing an advance from five to ten per cent over the last series. A five per cent advance, sold par for the series, line cross breds, sold par for the series, line cross breds Merinos was due largely to the demand from Americans, who purchased 17,000 bales.

U. S. MARINES SENT TO HAITI

Naval Transport Prairie Ordered to Republic With Full Complement of Men.

CRUX OF SITUATION

Revenue Cutter Takes Starving Refugees From Santo Domingo.

Washington, July 22.—Plans for mobilizing at least 1,000 marines within striking distance of Haiti and the Dominican Republic will move forward another step tomorrow with the arrival of the naval transport Prairie at Guantanamo from Vera Cruz.

The Prairie will bring the full complement of officers for the marines already at Guantanamo and will remain there to transport the force to Haiti should an emergency arise, while the Hancock is away for more troops.

With those preparations, President Wilson's decision as to what action the United States shall take to quell the revolution in the island republic and satisfy the pressure of European creditors, will be awaited. War and navy officials, confident that peace can be restored on the island only by the active intervention of the United States, are perfecting their plans.

San Juan, Porto Rico, July 22.—The United States revenue cutter Algonquin arrived here last night from Puerto Plata, Dominican Republic, with 166 refugees, mostly Porto Ricans, on board. One woman died during the voyage from the effects of starvation.

The condition of those remaining in Santo Domingo was reported to be pitiable, as it was almost impossible to obtain foodstuffs, the prices of which were prohibitive.

A report was brought here by the Algonquin that an American blue jacket on board the gunboat Macchas had been shot in the leg by a bullet from the shore.

Solon Menos, the Haitian minister, conferred today with Secretary Bryan and urged that intervention would result in a number of counter regulations, necessitate the dissolution of the present government and even the abdication of the president.

"I count on the spirit of justice of the American people," said Minister Menos, referring to intervention, "to restrain them from taking the step which would be so harmful to Haiti."

President mobilization of marines in the vicinity of the islands, the minister explained, had been officially explained by the state department as a precautionary step taken to avert possible trouble, and was not, he felt sure, an indication that plans actually existed for the landing of United States troops at Haiti.

TENER PREPARING FOR LEAGUE WAR

Believes Strike Settlement Not Permanent Owing to Beligerency of Magnates.

Seilms Grove, Pa., July 22.—"Baseball players are neither miners, hod carriers nor ditch diggers. They are professional men, and professional men do not strike," declared John K. Tener, governor of Pennsylvania and president of the National league of baseball players, in an interview today on his arrival here to review Pennsylvania national guardsmen in their camp.

"I am glad the strike is settled," continued Governor Tener. "However, I don't believe the settlement arrived at will be permanent owing to the beligerency of some of the baseball magnates."

"A strike such as was threatened is something new for me and you know I have played baseball and have been interested in baseball affairs all my life. I am preparing for war," declared the governor with a wink, "and after I am through inspecting and reviewing the soldiers here, I believe I will be in a position to control the turbulent factions."
